

EDGE hosts first workshop with Ministry of Interior to strengthen relations

EDGE, the advanced technology group for defence and beyond, held its first workshop with the Ministry of Interior (MoI), where various EDGE entities showcased their products, solutions, and capabilities, while the MoI offered their valuable operational insights to advance future developments. Attended by distinguished high-level officials, the four-day event was aimed at strengthening synergies between EDGE and the ministry, and forging collaboration on advanced technological solutions.